When we speak of Wine Categories, what we're doing is grouping smaller segments of wine into a larger "category" and then breaking it down from there. The categories we represent on this site are Red Wine, White Wine, Sparkling Wine, and Dessert Wine. We've broken it down a little further for shopping convenience by adding Domestic Wine for those that prefer wines from the US and Imported Wine for those who obviously like to throw a nice/economical import into the mix. Because we live in the beautiful Napa Valley and again for shopping convenience we've added Napa Valley Wine as a category on our site.
