Napa Valley Wine

The Napa Valley Subappellations as they have been called are like the Napa Valley AVA in that they are also AVAs or "American Viticulture Areas". There are 15 subappellations located in Napa County. With a wine growing history dating back to the 19th century, Napa Valley has been rated one of the highest wine growing regions in the US and also shares the glory of being one of only nine great wine capitals in the world.
